Greeting

Again we send out our Church Directory to further the good work begun by the two editions already issued. We recommend that it be given a place within easy reach, and that it be consulted often as a guide to the activities of the church. It is issued as a reminder of the opportunity and obligation of worship... And it is hoped that it may be a perpetual incentive to consecrated endeavor. The past year has been one of signal favor from God, and in a spirit of gratitude for past mercies we send forth this record of our organization and work.

To the friends who by their good will have made this issue possible we extend our sincere thanks. And we ask that when the Directory is consulted the Advertisers be not forgotten. And whatever we do, let it be in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Your Friend and Pastor,

JNO. A. HOOKWAY.

Church History

The Wyoming Avenue Baptist Mission was opened at the present location of the Church on September 10, 1891. The dedication sermon was by Russell H. Conwell, D. D. Messrs. E. Frick, David Titlow and Thomas Harvey were chosen as Trustees of the property until it was placed under the fostering care of the Baptist City Mission Society of Philadelphia. The pulpit was supplied respectively by Revs. King, Maltby Stock and French, and Rev. James French remained in active relation to the work after the advent of the present Pastor, Rev. Jno. A. Hookway, in September, 1895. He passed to his reward at the ripe age of 85 years in August, 1900. He was full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and his life fruitful in all good work.

The Church was organized in September, 1900, with a membership of 35. In 1905 the structure at the rear of the Church building was erected to accommodate the growing Bible School at a cost of $6080, plus the cost of the heating apparatus, and the shutters and glass partition.

The Mission grew out of the need of the community for a place of religious instruction for the children. The response to the call to provide such structure was so generous that provision was at once made for preaching services as well as the Bible School session. After twenty-four years of service Pastor Hookway is still with us and intent on proving all things, in order to hold fast to that which is eternal and true. Holding a lofty ideal of both the ethics and attainments of the ministry, that ideal is fully shared by his people. Mrs. Edna M. Hookway, who is fully and faithfully occupied in the work of the Church, was one of the early attendants at the Mission, and so were Mrs. Mae M. Frick Mrs. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Marshall and other loyal workers.

It is our privilege to write the next chapter in the history of the work so well begun, and we doubt not that it will in spirit and achievement be as worthy as that already written. Our aim must be concentrated on our New Building if the Church is to retain her place in the Community. For the past and present we "thank God, and take courage." For the future we press on to the attainment of our goal in Christ.

Our Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus, Christ as our Saviour, and, on profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We promise, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to forsake the paths of sin, and to walk in the ways of holiness all the days of our lives. With this view, we engage to strive together for the advancement of this Church, in knowledge, holiness and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the Church, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel throughout all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the Kingdom of our Saviour.

We further engage to walk together in Christian love and watchfulness, giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Saviour, to secure it, without delay. We, moreover, engage that, when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other Church, where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's Word.

WYOMING AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH
OF PHILADELPHIA

ARTICLE I.

Reception of Members.

Sec. 1. Any person professing faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and who may be recommended by the Pastor and Deacons, and giving evidence of a change of heart, and adopting the views of faith and practice held by this Church as set forth in its Covenant and By-Laws, may, after baptism, be received into its membership. Candidates for baptism must be recommended by the Pastor and Deacons previous to relating their Christian experience.

Sec. 2. Members from other Churches, holding the same faith may be received by letters of recommendation and dismission from their respective Churches.

Sec. 3. Those who have once been members of Baptist Churches and in consequence of any peculiar circumstances have no regular letters of dismission, may be received into the fellowship of this Church by giving satisfactory evidence of a change of heart, Christian conduct and Scriptural Faith.

Sec. 4. Excluded members may be restored to membership upon confession of their errors and giving evidence of repentance.

Sec. 5. All candidates for membership, whether by baptism or otherwise, shall before being received into membership, sign their names in the Covenant and By-Law book, and be provided with a copy containing the Covenant and By-Laws, to the end that they may act understandingly as to the responsibilities assumed and their assent to the same.

Sec. 6. The vote for reception of members shall be taken in the absence of the candidates.

Sec. 7. No person shall be received as a member of this Church, to whose admission there shall be openly stated objections, sustained by the vote of five members.

Sec. 8. Members may be received into the fellowship of this Church at any of the regular weekly meetings, provided a quorum of the Church may be present, and they shall have been elected by a three-fourths majority of the members present.

ARTICLE II.

Dismission of Members

Sec. 1. Members desiring letters of dismission shall make application to the Pastor or Deacons, who shall refer their application to the Financial Secretary to ascertain their financial standing. If satisfactory, said application shall be presented by the Pastor or Deacons at a regular meeting of the Church for action. No member shall be dismissed by letter who is delinquent, or in arrears to the Church, unless exonerated by the Finance Committee. All letters shall have endorsed upon them "valid for six months from date," unless otherwise ordered by the Church at the time of granting them and shall state the name of the Church with which the applicant desires to unite.

Sec. 2. Members changing their place of residence shall give immediate notice of the same to the Pastor and Clerk.

ARTICLE III.

Each member, whether in attendance upon the meetings of the Church or not, is required to contribute not less than $3.00 annually, to be paid quarterly, monthly or weekly, in advance; provided that children under fourteen years of age shall be exempt from payment of dues.

ARTICLE IV.

Officers of the Church

Sec. 1. Pastor. As often as it may be deemed necessary by the resignation, removal or death of the Pastor, the Church shall, without unnecessary delay, invite to its pastorship some minister of good report; provided at least three-fourths of the members present and voting at any meeting, of which two weeks' public notice shall be given, consent to the invitation.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Pastor to preach stately to the Church; to administer the ordinances of the Gospel; to act as Moderator when present in meetings for the transaction of business, and to perform the various duties incumbent on his office.

Sec. 3. Deacons. The Church shall elect Deacons at any regular or duly notified meeting, as often as it may be rendered necessary. It shall require a vote of not less than three-fourths of the members present, and the candidate receiving two-thirds shall be elected.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Deacons (1 Tim. 3: 8-13) to look after such members of the Church as need pecuniary aid, and use the alms of the Church held by them for their relief, to visit the sick, to prepare and distribute the elements of the communion, to advise with and aid the Pastor in matters relating to the spiritual interest of the Church for which purpose they shall, with the Pastor, meet stately once a month, to see that the Pastor receives a competent temporal support, and to act as the Discipline Committee of the Church, when necessary. They shall also see that strangers worshipping with us are cordially welcomed, and in case of vacancy in the pastoral office, attend to the procuring of supplies for the pulpit.

Sec. 5. A Clerk, a Treasurer, a Financial Secretary, and a Board of nine Trustees, shall, at the annual Church business meeting on the second Monday evening in September of every year, be elected by ballot by a plurality of votes; or in case of any omission or failure to elect, at the next regular meeting for business; and in case of the death, resignation or removal of either of the above incumbents, an election shall be held to fill the vacancy at the first regular meeting following that at which such vacancy shall have occurred; and such election shall be publicly announced from the pulpit on the Lord's Day preceding such election. The Treasurer and Financial Secretary shall meet the Board of Trustees; and be entitled to a voice and vote in its deliberations. The active Board shall continue in the discharge of their office on the election of a new Board, until the duties of office have been properly assumed by the newly elected officers.

Sec. 6. Clerk. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep a record of all the doings of the Church, to keep the Covenant book with record of its members, to prepare all letters of dismission and authority, when voted by the Church, and to call the regular meetings of the Church.

Sec. 7. Treasurer. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all monies, excepting the relief fund, through the Financial Secretary, and to keep an accurate account of the same. He shall pay out none, except salaries and gas bill, save on a written order made by the Board of Trustees and signed by their chairman and secretary; and he shall give an abstract report of the state of the treasury to the Board at their monthly meeting, and a full report to the Church at their quarterly and annual business meetings, all of which shall be kept on file.

Sec. 8. Trustees. It shall be the duty of the Trustees, as legal representatives of the Church to hold the property of the Church in trust. They shall provide for the wants to the house of worship, and see that the Church property of whatever kind is properly cared for, and rendered in every way the most serviceable to the Church and congregation. It shall be their duty to appoint a Sexton, and to see that everything is properly arranged before and during the time of divine service. Their regular meeting shall be held on the first Wednesday evening of every month.

Sec. 9. Financial Secretary. It shall be the duty of the Financial Secretary to receive all monies, transfer them to the Treasurer within one week of receiving, and to take his receipt for the same. He shall also submit a quarterly statement to regular contributors and report all members in arrears to the Board of Deacons.

ARTICLE V.

Sec. 1. The regular business meetings of the Church shall be held quarterly on the second Wednesday evening in December, March and June, and the annual meeting in September, at 8 o'clock sharp.

Sec. 2. Special meetings may be called by the Pastor of the Church. In case of resignation, absence or refusal to act, the Clerk shall call such meeting on the written request of not less than seven adult male members and the notice shall first be given from the pulpit on the Lord's Day preceding the date of meeting.

Sec. 3. Seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 4. The Church shall meet regularly every Lord's Day for the public worship of Almighty God.

Sec. 5. The ordinance of the communion shall be observed by the Church on the first Lord's Day in each month immediately after the regular morning service, at which time an offering for the poor shall be received.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the members to meet once a week for social prayer.

ARTICLE VI.

Manner of Conducting Business

Sec. 1. The Pastor of the Church, or, in his absence, any brother whom the Church may appoint, shall act as Moderator in all meetings for the transaction of business.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to keep order, state and explain propositions, secure to each member respectfully addressing the chair a respectful hearing, and by his vote decide questions upon which there is no majority.

Sec. 3. He shall cause every meeting to be opened and closed with prayer.

Sec. 4. He shall call for the business of the Church in the following order:

I. Reading the minutes of the previous meeting.

II. Reports of Officers.

III. Reports of Committees.

IV. Receive letters of dismission from sister churches.

V. Grant letters of dismission to those requesting them.

VI. Unfinished business.

VII. New business.

Sec. 5. He shall suffer no second motion to be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, except motions to amend, postpone adjourn, or to put the main question.

Sec. 6. He shall call to order any member who, while speaking, introduces any subject foreign to the one under discussion.

Sec. 7. He shall call to order any member who uses uncourteous language, or whose remarks are adapted to injure the reputation or feeling of any member.

Sec. 8. He may speak upon any subject under discussion by inviting a brother to preside in his place.

Sec. 9. Every member who wishes to speak shall rise and respectfully address the Moderator.

Sec. 10. Every proposition presented for the action of the Church must be introduced by the motion of one member, (in writing if requested), and seconded by another.

Sec. 11. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same subject, until each member who wishes to speak shall have been given an opportunity.

Sec. 12. Upon any point of order a member may appeal from the Moderator to the Church, whose decision shall be final.

Sec. 13. All questions shall be decided by the vote of a majority except cases mentioned in other sections of these By-Laws.

Sec. 14. There shall be no other meetings held in the building during the business meetings of the Church.

ARTICLE VII.

Committees

Sec. 1. At the annual business meeting in September, the Moderator shall appoint a Music Committee of three members to have the oversight of the musical exercises of the Church. Other committees may be appointed at any business meeting, when deemed advisable, to take charge of and carry out any particular part of the Church work.

Sec. 2. There shall be submitted to the Church each year, by the Secretary of the Sabbath School, a list of the officers and teachers of the school, which if approved, shall constitute a board. To this board shall be entrusted the Bible work of the Church, under the general supervision of the Superintendent, through whom a quarterly report shall be submitted to the Church.

Sec. 3. All boards and committees shall have the right to adopt such rules and regulations as they may deem best and most favorable to their success; providing that none shall conflict with the Covenant and By-Laws of this Church, not interfere with its regular or special meetings; and all such boards, committees, societies or associations, shall be amenable to the Church, and submit to it quarterly reports of their work, wants and progress.

Sec. 4. All organizations within the Church for Christian work, growing up as they must, upon the seed of gospel truth sown by the Church shall be considered as belonging to the Church; and while those engaging voluntarily in such service shall be considered so far independent in their organizations as to elect their own officers, and to enact laws for their own government, yet it shall be the duty of all such organizations to render to the Church, at its annual business meeting, a report of their transactions, that it may be kept informed of the good work that is thus being accomplished.

ARTICLE VIII.

Sec. 1. When an individual member suffers in personal character or estate, from the conduct of any other member, the aggrieved member shall be expected to proceed (in a spirit of kindness toward the offending person), in accordance with the rule laid down in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew. Nor shall any individual difference be brought into the Church until this course has been pursued, except through the Board of Deacons, or a special committee appointed by the Church for that purpose.

Sec. 2. In all cases where a member has been guilty of improper conduct, affecting not an individual exclusively, but bringing reproach upon the Church, and a wound upon the cause of Christ, it shall be the duty of the Board of Deacons to procure evidence of the fact, upon which the Church shall cite the offender to appear, if practicable, at the next meeting; in case of refusal, or failure to attend, the Church may proceed to his exclusion.

Sec. 3. Every member against whom a charge of misconduct is preferred, shall have the privilege of speaking in his own defense.

Sec. 4. No complaint shall be preferred in the Church against a member, nor shall any action be taken by the Church upon the case of an offending member, until the offense shall have been specifically stated in writing.

Sec. 5. Written testimony of any person not a member of this Church may be admitted in cases of discipline, but not oral testimony, except the person testifying be connected with some church of the same faith and order.

Sec. 6. Members prevented from regular attendance with us by reason of removal to a distance shall be required (if where they can have access to a regular Baptist Church), to take and present to such a letter of recommendation or dismissal; and if no such Church is accessible to them to report to this Church annually an account of their spiritual condition or be subject to discipline.

Sec. 7. All letters of dismissal from this Church shall have endorsed upon them "valid for six months from date," unless otherwise ordered by the Church at the time they are granted.

ARTICLE IX.

Convening a Council

Sec. 1. In cases of difficulty for the decision of which the Church desires the advice and wisdom of disinterested brethren, letters may be sent to neighboring Churches, requesting them to appoint delegates to meet a delegation from the Church on a specified day, to which council, when organized, the case shall be referred; and their advice shall be laid before the Church for further action.

ARTICLE X.

Representatives in Association

Sec. 1. Once each year delegates shall be appointed to represent the Church in the Association, with a written statement of the condition of the Church, including its changes—which statement shall have received the previous approval of the Church; to faithfully represent the desires of the Church, and to co-operate with the messengers of other Churches in promoting the interest of the kingdom of Christ.

ARTICLE XI.

Licensing and Ordaining Members to Preach the Gospel

Sec. 1. Any member who, in the judgment of the Church, gives evidence of his piety, zeal and aptness to teach, that he is called of God to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, may be licensed; provided three-fourths of the members present at any regular meeting of the Church agree thereto.

Sec. 2. If the Church unanimously decide that one of its licensed preachers possesses the Scriptural qualifications for full ordination, they shall call a council of ministers and brethren to meet a delegation from the Church on a specified day, to examine the qualifications of the candidate, to which council the propriety of ordaining shall be wholly referred.

ARTICLE XII.

Benevolent Action

Sec. 1. The Church holds it to be an imperative duty to labor for the propagation of pure Christianity throughout the world, and shall maintain some system by which the leading enterprises of the denomination may receive their share of support from the members according as the Lord has prospered them.

Sec. 2. In consonance with the Budget Plan of the Denominational Conventions an effort will be made to secure the proportion assigned to this Church, and to this end the second Sundays in November, February, May and August are set apart as Budget Days, when Missionary subjects will be presented, and offerings received to meet our Budget obligation. Societies forwarding funds to any of the Missionary Secretaries will so inform the Treasurer of this Church.

Sec. 3. At the regular Church meeting in June, the Church shall appoint a committee of three members, other than officers of the Church, as an Auditing Committee, to examine the books of the Treasurer and the Financial Secretary; and the said committee shall report the result of their examination at the annual meeting of the Church in September, such examination and report to embrace the finances of the Church to the close of the fiscal year.

ARTICLE XIII.

Alterations or Amendments

Alterations or amendments to the foregoing rules of Church order must be offered in writing, read and entered on the minutes at a regular quarterly meeting of the Church, and shall lie over for three months previous to action being taken thereon; and they shall not be altered, amended or suspended, except by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any subsequent regular quarterly meeting of the Church
